Is there something you would like to fast give up or to take up this Lenten season that might help you focus on God. If I begin with my own sense of what needs to be done - then I am not listening or paying attention to the work that God has already been doing amongst these people before I arrived and will continue after I am gone. With a regular outlet, this is not possible because the specific energy that has been used to charge the electric car with, cannot be measured. Then I declared, "There is sin on this platform.
